on the job. Several activities are involved: assessment, face-to-face meetings, telephone conversations, exchanging e-mail. Coaches serve as trainers, facilitators, motivators, moderators, devil's advocates, sounding boards, and confidantes...consulting as well.

One interesting development in coaching has been spurred by the World Wide Web . An enterprising individual has franchised his method with a "cyber -school" for the budding coach--Coach University (http://www.coachu.com). Participants are "certified" after...

...master trainer. Graduates can join the affiliated International Coaching Federation, receive a listing in the on - line referral service, and even go on to become teachers for other cyber -students. Coach University also has an on - line bookstore and is expanding into face-to-face workshops. As with many Web offerings, it is difficult to assess the science behind the marketing effort.

The Experience

The...service between scheduled meetings that consists of either a telephone conversation or an exchange of ${\bf e}$ -mail. This is sometimes included in the hourly rate or offered as an option for...

...skills between sessions;

- * have access and contact with the coach between sessions via telephone or $\ensuremath{\mathbf{e}}$ -mail;
- * receive sound advice and ongoing feedback from a dedicated coach that, if acted upon...
